

Design for Equity

#SDF2015

FREE COMMUNITY EVENTS!

Mount Baker Town Center Street Festival 2015

Sunday, September 20 | 11:30 AM – 6:00 PM

Mount Baker Station and Artspace Mt. Baker Lofts (2915 Rainier Ave S, Seattle)

Music! Entertainment! Food Trucks! Arts!
Special Bicycle Sunday Route Extension!

Join us for a fun community festival at the Mount Baker Link light rail station. For this festival only, the Bicycle Sunday route extends from Lake Washington Blvd. to Cheasty Blvd., bringing the community to the site of Seattle's proposed Mount Baker Town Center. Join us as we celebrate the area's rich history, and explore opportunities for its promising future!

Food by

Mind the Gap:

Building a Bridge Between Historic Neighborhoods and Modern Urban Development

Monday, September 21 | 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Mount Baker Station and Artspace Mt. Baker Lofts (2915 Rainier Ave S, Seattle)

During the Seattle Design Festival, local designers will be activating an existing pedestrian bridge with wayfinding and experiential graphics that tell the cultural story of the neighborhood and help build a connection between surrounding communities. Join a free special tour of the installation followed by an engaging roundtable discussion at Artspace Mt. Baker Lofts. RSVP requested.

Visit seattledesignfestival.org to learn more about festival events.

Partial funding by:

Seattle Office of Arts & Culture, Seattle Department of Transportation, and Seattle Department of Neighborhoods

Sponsored by:

SEATTLE PARKS FOUNDATION

September 12 – 25

Seattle Design Festival